ACEs Initiatives and Actions

As knowledge about the science of adverse childhood experiences (ACEs) spreads, ACEs initiatives have launched in all 50 U.S. states and the District of Columbia. Hundreds of cross-sector collaboratives are educating and engaging organizations and policymakers about ACEs science. In turn, these organizations are implementing trauma-informed and resilience-building practices and policies based on ACEs science; many legislatures are passing resolutions and/or bills.

Highlights

The Indiana Department of Public Health (IDPH) is planning to add an ACE module to the Behavioral Risk Factor Surveillance System in 2018. The Children's Special Health Care Services at the Indiana State Department of Health coordinates some work around ACEs.

The Children's Policy and Law Initiative of Indiana (CPLI) Positive School Discipline Institute is using a national best practice model, The Trauma-Informed School, to implement trauma-informed care in schools. The approach is cross-disciplinary, involves the entire school community, including parents and students. The training covers restorative justice, understanding culturally responsive practices and implicit bias, among other topics.
